House Refurbishments Completed

An alumni sponsored refurbishing project has been carried on for the past four weeks and has progressed rapidly under the capable direction of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shields and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hanson. The Chapter deeply appreciates the interest shown these, and other, alumni and sincerely hopes that many more will return in June in order to become acquainted with the newer Brothers.

The living room and the card room now have new drapes and apple-green rugs, the latter of which we are indebted to Mr. Warnick for securing them for the Chapter House. While the new drapes in the card room are a bright yellow, providing contrast for the green walls and rug, the living room and main hall have

House Initiates Nine Men

Saturday, March 11, saw the end of pledge training for nine of our freshmen. We are still plagued by the refusal of the college administration to allow us to initiate in the first term as we would like to, so this year our initiation corresponded with the "hell week" set aside by the college for fraternity initiations. Things ran very smoothly and the ceremonies on Saturday night were followed by our first "sit down" banquet since the war.

Brother F. Michler Bishop '23 acted as toast master and he called on several of the brothers present to speak briefly. Brother Storrs Bishop spoke mainly to the seniors who will be graduating in June and he said that he hoped that the phrase "Delt Shop" would leave with them. We

13 Alpha Delts to Graduate June 11th

Thirteen Alpha Delts will be among the 363 Seniors to graduate this year, in the largest class ever to graduate from Union College. This year the commencement exercises will be held at the Plaza Theater in order to accommodate parents and friends of the graduates. It is with the best wishes for the future that we bid good-bye to the following Brothers:

Albert E. Anderson, Claverack, New York. Andy is an economics major and plans to be a fruit grower after graduation. Engaged to Miss Joan Fingar also of Claverack, Andy will be married October 7th of this year. While at Union, Andy was Secretary of the Fraternity, a member of the Ski team and the Outing Club.

William W. Cumberland, Jr., Englewood, New Jersey. Bill majored in economics and plans to enter the field of banking after graduation. In the House, Bill has been our Social Chairman, Initiation Chairman and member of the Finance Committee. On campus he played varsity hockey, was an announcer and technician at WRUC and a member of the Block "U" Society.

John J. DeBello, Oneida, New York. JJ in his spare time majored in economics and plans to follow his father's footsteps in the construction business. JJ has been a "wheel" on campus for four years. He was President of the Senior and Junior Classes and Chairman of the following committees: Admissions Committee, Election Committee, Calendar Committee, Junior Prom Committee and the Student Body Incorporation Committee. He also played varsity football for three years, was Treasurer of the Newman Club, Secretary of the Block "U" Society, and a member of the Student Council, Delphic Society and Hale Club. In the House John was Vice President, Treasurer and Steward.
